Dear John

PRICE INCREASE

We are all aware of the extraordinary circumstances regarding global oil pricing and its knock on effect on Packaging Products in terms of raw material, transport, utilities and other overheads.

With Substantial increases already through and predictions of more in the near future Sealed Air have no alternative but to increase our prices to the market.

Therefore, with deliveries effect from Monday 17th October 2005, our prices will increase by the following percentages.

Air Cellular	13%
Mailing Products	6%
Packaging Foam	7%
Fill-Air Film	6%

Converted products in Air cellular and packaging foam will also increase by the relevant percentage.

Your Sealed Air PPD Regional Sales Manager will contact you soon with your new price list and to address any concerns you may have.

Assuring you of our best attention at all times.

Yours sincerely

P.P.
